LABEL—a short word or phrase descriptive of a person, group, intellectual movement, etc.

Each of us “wear” many labels in life. Sometimes those labels are complimentary (praising or approving) and sometimes they are derogatory (showing a critical or disrespectful attitude). Some labels we attach to ourselves while others are attached to us. There are some we “wear” with pride and others we would love to forget.

For me, I love it when I am labeled “Banta” (my grandkids name for me), or “Dad” (a label only one person can call me), or “Baby” (another label that only one person can call me). A label that I have worn with pride for 63 years is “Son.” Yes, it still thrills my heart to hear my momma call me son.

Over two-thousand years ago the followers of Christ were “labeled.” The label was not necessarily intended as a compliment. In fact, many Bible scholars believe the label was derogatory at the time. Today, it is a label that is used so widely around the world that the original meaning may have been forgotten.

Acts 11:26c “and the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.” Why that label? Could it be that their lives so reflected the life of Christ that those observing them thought they were seeing Christ? I sometimes wonder what those in Antioch would label me.

In His service,

Randy
