We had 7 men attend the Rewired Men's Conference on April 26-27 at Falls Creek.

Look for future men's activities and be ready to join in! God is at work, so let's see where that is and join Him.

To find out more about what is coming or to offer ideas, find Patrick Scott and let him hear from you.

Let me brag on our Adult Choir for a minute if I could. By now, if you've been in our worship services, you've seen them lead with a powerful anointing from the Lord. I have been asked by some of you what is going on and what has made such a difference in our group. After all, we still sing songs and sit in the choir loft like we always did before. But... you're right... this group IS different.

When we started going through our transition as a church, I began encouraging them differently. I began talking about each of us being vital and important to the Kingdom and to our church. I constantly spoke of being a team, a family, and that we need to share in this together in order to be unified. They bought in.

That led to more vulnerability in our times of prayer together. That created more fellowship in rehearsals. That has led to each of them deciding in their hearts to seek after God, not settling for just "showing up to church and singing". That caused each of them to see themselves and their roles as vital and important. They have taken more time to prepare and to care in worship and in personal growth. And you see firsthand every week what a difference it has made.

Can I tell you that we are a family? And it's not been hard to see how much this choir loves each other. May I challenge YOU with the same challenge I offered to them a year ago? See yourself as vital. See your role in the church as important. See your value to Jesus Christ and do more than just "show up". When you do, it will create a passion for the Lord that will be evident and seen. And then you get to explain the difference He's made in you too. After all, we are family. And it's a GREAT family!

See You Sunday! Lyndall

Kid's Brighten Our Lives

I read recently about a little girl that became restless in church as the minister's message dragged on and on. The little girl leaned over to her mother and whispered, "Mommy, if we give him the money now, will he let us go?" Kid's really do brighten our lives. Then there was the story of a four year old that accompanied her mom to deliver hot lunches to shut-ins. The sight of all the canes, walkers and wheelchairs she saw on her visit mesmerized little Judy. But when she saw a pair of false teeth soaking in a glass, she slowly turned and whispered to her mother, "The tooth fairy will never believe this!" Kids brighten our lives. Is there any wonder why Jesus loved them so much?

"Then children were brought to Him so He might put His hands on them and pray. But the disciples rebuked them. <sup>14</sup> Then Jesus said, "Leave the children alone, and don't try to keep them from coming to Me, because the kingdom of heaven is made up of people like this." <sup>15</sup> After putting His hands on them, He went on from there." Matthew 19:12-15 (HCSB)

In His service,

Randy
